

Curriculum vitae

Personal information

Nora Stene , Skøyenveien 75, 0375 Oslo
Tel: 22 84 40 68, 22 73 41 44, 92 44 88 18

nora.stene@ikos.uio.no

Nationality Norwegian

Family Two children, born 1995 and 1997.

Education

2005 PhD, History of Religions, University of Oslo. PhD funded by scholarship from Norsk Forskningsråd, NFR. PhD defended Feb. 2005.

1993/94 Research student, London School of Economics, dept. of Anthropology.

1992 Teacher training (Pedagogisk seminar) University of Oslo.

1991 Cand. Philol. with History of Religions and Arabic language studies.
Master degree funded by scholarship from NAVF.

Recent work and research experience

2014- Assistant professor (Førsteamanuensis), Institute for Cultural Studies, IKOS, Dept. of History of Religions, University of Oslo, UiO

2006-2014 Senior lecturer (førstelektor) IKOS, Dept. of History of Religions, UiO.

2005 Lecturer (universitetslektor) IKOS, Dept. of History of Religions, UiO.

2004, 1/1-31/12 Assistant professor (Førsteamanuensis), Master studies in multicultural and international education, Oslo University Collage (HiO).
(Employment as Assistant professor because of PhD completed, though not yet defended)

1992-2005 Part time teaching at Institute for Cultural Studies, University of Oslo.

1992 June-Sept. Coordinator for FAFO in Oslo, Jerusalem, Ramallah and Gaza.
Coordinating work with Survey of living conditions amongst Palestinians.

Language abilities

Norwegian mother tongue

English fluent, bilingual English-Norwegian children
Lived in London 1992-1994.

Arabic may use modern standard Arabic and Egyptian dialect
Lived in Cairo 1985-1989.

French and German good knowledge, used German and French sources in PhD research. Lived in France Aug.-Dec 1981.

Publications, Teaching and other information

Information listed at UiOs homepage, www.hf.uio.no/ikos/personer/vit/norap