

Photo: Anastasia Bertheussen/Lisa H. Søy & Thora B. Sandberg

Knowing Natures Eco-Slam

Performance, Image, Sound and Literature

by the students of the Environmental Humanities and Sciences Honours Certificate (EHS)

- Time 3 December 2021
- Venue Sophus Bugges hus, UiO, Blindern, Oslo, Norway
- Conveners Graduate Students of the Honours Certificate in Environmental Humanities and Sciences (EHS) at the Oslo School of Environmental Humanities (OSEH), University of Oslo, Norway
- Abstract The Eco-Slam is an open exhibition hosted by the Oslo School of Environmental Humanities (OSEH) where students of the Environmental Humanities and Sciences Honours certificate (EHS) at the University of Oslo present their environmental stories through performance, image, sound, and literature. All are welcome to this drop-in exhibition, with a program of presentations and performances as listed below.

Program

14:30– 14.45

Welcome

Seminar Room 1

Rebecca Birch & Ursula Münster

14:45–15.15

From the River to the Fjord – Presentations & Panel

Seminar Room 1

Sjur S. Strøm

River Restored? Perspectives on Urban Nature, Extinction, and Ecological Restoration after the Chlorine Leakage in Akerselva 2011

Thora B. Sandberg & Lisa H. Søyland

Pores Pearls Plastic: The Memory of Matter

Ada W.S Eldevik, Genver Quirino & Jonatan H. Røhme

Clashing Waves

Ane Maria G. Døhl

The Nøkk in the Frogner River - Storytelling and Folk Music

15.15–15:45

Exploring the Exhibition (see venues below)

15:45- 16:15

From City to Forest – Presentations & Panel

Seminar Room 1

Harald W. Bøe

Ecomorphosis: Poetic Urban Encounters

Rita Kovács

Asbjørnsen Got Lost in the Woods and So Should You: A Physical & Textual Hike Through Nordmarka

Anastasia Bertheussen

A Breathing Wreckage: A Photographic Essay investigating the Creatures living in and around a Plane Wreck at Hansakollen

16:15 – 16:45

Cultivating Worlds – Panel

Seminar Room 1

Ingrid A. P. Ekelund, Emily P. Middendorf & Johannes H. Sletten

Heim Hage: Sowing Worlds One Seed at a Time

Mari H. Einang & Vilde N. Hilleren

Folk Farming

16:45 – 17:30

Refreshments & Exploring the Exhibition

17:30 – 18:00

Ethics, Consumption & Responsibility- Panel

Seminar Room 1

Konrad K. Sandvik & Iva Svalina

Environmental Justice Litigation: What can we learn from Norway's experience?

Merita Fjetland & Marte N. Thomassen

Cheap Food for Whom? An Exploration of Food Chains, Inequality and Environments

Dina Skotnes

Approaching Responsibility: A Study of Norway's Biggest Oil Companies

18:00- 18:30

Infrastructures & Global Flows - Panel

Seminar Room 1

Tiril Sofie Erdal

I rute

Simon O. Roy

Green Gifts: Everyday life and industrial expansions at the Port of Rotterdam

Tarjei Brekke

The Riddle of the Steel Bees

18:30 – 19:00

Into the Night – Closing Performances

Harald W. Bøe

Ecomorphosis: Poetic Urban Encounters

Ane Maria G. Døhl

The Nøkk in the Frogner River - Storytelling and Folk Music

