

Closing conference

SKI (Språk-Kultur-Identitet) project
"Language, Culture, and Identity in Migrant Narratives"

Thursday 23 May 13:15 – 17:15 – Friday 24 May 2013 10:15 – 15:15
Helga Engs hus Aud 3

Thursday

13:15                    Prologue: Victor Mutelekesha exposition: "Shadow of my shadow"

13:30                    About the SKI project: Elizabeth Lanza, project leader

13:45                    Guest lecturer: Mike Baynham, Leeds University, UK
Identity: Brought about or brought along?

SKI presentations, Part 1: Contesting identities

14:30                    Bjørghild Kjelsvik/ SKI: "I have no family" – Identity constructions in an asylum interview

15:00                    Annika B. Myhr/ SKI: The story of your life: Asylum seekers in Maria Amelie's and Mikhail Shishkin's narratives

15:30                    Break

16:00                    Veronica Pájaro/ SKI: Categorizations, language ideologies and the construction of professional identities in job interview narratives

16:30                    Guest lecturer: Klas Grinell, Museum of World Culture, Sweden
Narrations of/as belonging

17:15                    End of program for Day 1

Friday

9:15                    Guest lecturer: Anna De Fina, Georgetown University, USA
Narrative analysis and the study of immigrant identities

SKI presentations, Part 2: Negotiating Belonging

10:00                    Ingeborg Kongslien/ SKI: Literature of migration in Scandinavia: Translingual and transnational

10:30                    Pia Lane/ SKI: "It feels like now this is in our own language": Religion,
authenticity and belonging

11:00                    Break

11:30                    Elizabeth Lanza and Anne Golden/ SKI: Personal and professional identities at the crossroads in a migration context

SKI presentations, Part 3: Wielding metaphors

12:00                    Saphinaz Amal Naguib/ SKI: Visual metaphors of migration in museums of cultural history

12:30                    Anne Golden and Elizabeth Lanza/ SKI: Metaphors of language learning in migrants' identity construction

13:00                    Lunch

14:00                    Guest lecturer: Sten Pultz Moslund, University of Southern Denmark
Rethinking hybridity through the perspectives of intention, time, place and aesthetics

14:45                    Roundtable discussion: Interdisciplinary approaches to the study of narrative and identity?

15:15                    End