

MEVIT4319 – Political communication: The Nordic context

Take home exam, autumn 2019

Monday 02 December at 11:00 – Thursday 05 December at 11:00

Candidates must submit their exam paper in Inpera no later than Thursday 05 December by 11.00 (11AM).

The exam consists of two (2) pages and one (1) question.

Before you start writing your exam submission, you must ensure that you have read and understood the University of Oslo's information about cheating:

<http://www.uio.no/english/studies/examinations/cheating/index.html>

You must use a reference style (such as Harvard, MLA, Chicago or APA) throughout your exam submission, and in the bibliography/reference list at the end of the submission. Therefore, you must also read the University's guidelines:

Technology, the internet and social media are reshaping the way that political communication is practiced and discussed. When considering the Nordic model of government described in the course readings, what are the most important changes to political communication associated with new communication technologies? Is there anything distinct about the Nordic countries that influences how these changes occur? Please provide examples and explain why or why not.

Information about the exam

You must submit your exam in English.

The submitted paper may be up to 10 pages (one page is calculated to 2300 characters without spaces). The front page and reference list do not count towards the 10 pages. Use Times New Roman font in 12pt. and 1.5 line spacing.

The exam must be submitted as a PDF, or it will not be accepted by Inspera. Your front page must include your candidate number, and the name of the file you upload should be your candidate number (eg. 1.pdf). Do not include your name anywhere on your exam submission.

All students are required to have read and familiarized themselves with the University's rules regarding cheating, found here: <http://www.uio.no/english/studies/examinations/cheating/> All submissions will be checked using the University's plagiarism detection software.

Please see our web site for more practical information about exams at the Department of Media and Communication: <http://www.hf.uio.no/imk/english/studies/submission/index.html>

Eli Skogerbø can be contacted through e-mail, eli.skogerbo@media.uio.no , and will answer questions regarding the exam submitted on Monday 02 December by 13:00. Questions will generally be answered by the end of the day.

The exam results will be published in Studentweb within three weeks. Results will not be given by phone or e-mail.
