SENSORVEILEDNING

A

Extensive reading. Firm knowledge of the literature. Answers the question completely. Independent argument that is critical, nuanced and well supported by examples.

B

Some reading, good understanding of the literature, critical approach (not necessarily with counterarguments). Answers the question (mostly) completely

C

Some reading, fair understanding of the literature, there is some argument that is supported by some points (no developed critical approach). Does not answer the whole question.

D

Limited reading. Does not entirely address the question. No critical approach. Text raises relevant points but not always clear how they contribute to answering the initial question. Relevance of some parts is not clear.

E

As above but with extra problems: contradictions, errors, unclear writing that makes it difficult to follow.

F

Insufficient
