

Associate professor Linda Kahlin (Södertörn University, Sweden), PhD Hedda Söderlundh (Södertörn University, Sweden) and PhD Matylda Weidner (Kazimierz Wielki University, Bydgoszcz, Poland)

Practices for doing work together: observations from a multilingual construction site

In this presentation we focus on a small construction site in Sweden, where we observe parallel use of English and Swedish between Polish and Swedish carpenters. We demonstrate how the participants make use of different linguistic, embodied and material resources for collaborative accomplishment of manual tasks and solving specialized work-related problems together.